PRESS ADVISORY

SCHENECTADY POOLS OPENING FOR SUMMER SWIMMING SEASON

SCHENECTADY – Mayor Brian U. Stratton is pleased to announce that the City of Schenectady's four public swimming pools will open for the season on Friday, June 22 and Monday, June 25.

The Central Park Pool and the Front Street Pool will open on Friday, June 22. Central Park Pool, the city's largest and most popular pool, will be open seven days a week, from 12:00 noon until 7:00 PM. The Front Street Pool, which is operated by the Schenectady YWCA, will also be open seven days a week, from 12 noon until 6:30 PM. The YWCA charges a daily entrance fee of $1.25 per child and $3.00 per adult for using the Front Street Pool. All other city pools are free to the public.

Hillhurst Park and Quackenbush Park pools are scheduled to open on Monday, June 25. Both pools will operate Monday through Friday from 12:00 noon until 7:00 PM, with Quackenbush Pool also being open Saturdays from 12:00 noon until 5:00 PM.

For the second consecutive year, the Quackenbush Park Pool will be operated and supervised by the Boys & Girls Clubs of Schenectady. In addition to swimming, a range of daily recreation programs will be offered by the Boys & Girls Clubs at Quackenbush.
