Home Ownership Made Easy in Schenectady

Rehab for city foreclosed properties

WHEN: Sunday, May 20, 2012
12:00 -12:30 p.m.

WHERE: 2104 VanVranken Avenue, Schenectady, NY 12308

DETAILS: The Mayor will announce the second phase of Key to the City Program Called HOMES (Home Ownership Made Easy in Schenectady)

The Program will make it easy for interested home buyers, contractors and developers to purchase city foreclosed properties to rehab them. In conjunction, there will also be some Federal funds available to make home ownership possible for first time income qualified homebuyers in the City of Schenectady.

The city is working very closely with its partners, the Schenectady City School District, KeyBank, Prudential Manor Homes, The Daily Gazette, and SRG Architects, to make this Program successful and to help city home owners.

WHO: Gary McCarthy, Mayor of Schenectady
Eric Shilling, City of Schenectady Building Inspector
Schenectady City School District Officials
KeyBank Representatives
Prudential Manor Homes Representatives
Schenectady City Council
