PRESS RELEASE

Schenectady Municipal Golf Course to Close for Season on Sunday

SCHENECTADY – Mayor Gary McCarthy and Head Professional Matthew Daley announced that Sunday, November 11th will be the last day of the season at Schenectady Municipal Golf Course. However, the golf shop will remain open through the holidays, Daley added.

“We are extremely thankful to Matt Daley and our dedicated staff for another successful year at the course,” Mayor McCarthy said. “The Schenectady Municipal Golf Course is one of the most beautiful in the region, and we are extremely proud to have it right in our backyard.”

In 2018, the number of season passes increased by 21% and the Junior Golf two-week lesson program saw participation increase by 33%. Overall course revenue for the year increased by $7,264 even though there were 34 days of rain during the season, including a significant amount of rain during the fall, Daley noted.

“We are proud to have had another successful year and look forward to continuing our improvements in 2019,” said Daley.
