NEWS RELEASE
Incident at 2013 State St - Bumpy's Polar Freeze

At approximately 7:02 pm multiple 911 calls were placed stating that there was a male with a gun threatening protesters in the area of 2013 State St – Bumpy’s Polar Freeze. As multiple officers were dispatched to that address, further information was being relayed to Schenectady County Dispatchers that the male in question had left the scene in a vehicle headed towards Balltown Road. Once on scene, officers began to interview multiple witnesses and gather further information in regards to the incident.

A short distance away, officers from the Niskayuna Police Department observed the vehicle in question and initiated a traffic stop. The male occupant of the vehicle was detained and an imitation (pellet gun) long gun was recovered from inside the vehicle. The male was turned over to officers from the Schenectady Police Department and transported to headquarters.

The male in question has been identified as David Elmendorf, 35 years old, of Schenectady. Mr. Elmendorf is currently being charged with two (2) counts of Menacing in the 2nd Degree (Class A Misdemeanor).

There is no further information available at this time.
